PerfectSense Lacquered Boards

For your premium ideas

Regardless of whether the goal is to create an elegant yet comfortable ambiance or an air of exclusivity, PerfectSense Lacquered Boards provide you with both a visual and textured experience to fit your needs. The high-quality PerfectSense Lacquered Boards with matt and high-gloss surfaces are ideal for use in the upmarket furniture division. They are easy to process and therefore more cost-efficient to manufacture than comparable genuine materials. Reduce your waste thanks to the board format optimised for cutting. With the extensive decor selection, you always have the right design for your project.

The 24 stock decors are now joined by 26 wood and material reproductions, some with a pearlescent effect, which are available from 24 half formats. The pearlescent element enhances certain Gloss and Matt decors.

Thanks to PerfectSense Matt, woodgrain reproductions look and feel almost the same as real wood. We can create unprecedented surface qualities and give the premium product PerfectSense even more variety.
